

The Daily Courant.

Monday, January 27. 1707.

London, January 27.

Yesterday arriv'd from Holland the Mail of Tuesday last.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 1.

Milan, Jan. 18.

THE Marquis de Florida, Governour of our Castle, has declar'd beforehand, that assoon as the Term agreed on with this City for a Suspension of Arms is expir'd, as it will the End of this Month, he will fire upon us with burning Bullets, unless he be furnish'd with such a Quantity of Provisions as was given him before for the Subsistence of his Garrison. Our 60 Decuriones have assembled to consider of this Matter, and their Deputies have conferr'd about it with the Marquis de Prie the Emperour's Plenipotentiary, and Count Conigseck who commands the Imperial Troops employ'd in the Blockade of our Castle; But 'tis said they have deferr'd their Answer to the Governour, till the Return of an Express sent to Turin to know Prince Eugene's Pleasure. In the mean time the Preparations for attacking the Castle are continued with great Diligence. 'Tis advis'd from Turin, that the Duke of Savoy has nominated to the Bishoprick of Vercelli M. Visconti Brother of the General and Chancellor of that Name.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 1.

Vienna, Jan. 15. The Emperour has declar'd, that he is willing the Negociation of Peace with the Malecontents should be renew'd, and in Order to it to agree to a Suspension of Arms, provided the Malecontents will previously declare, 1. That they will quit their Demand of the Guaranty of Sweden and Prussia, 2. That the Transilvanians content themselves with being stil'd in the Treaty The Transilvanians allied with the confederated Hungarians, and 3. That no other Prince of Transilvania shall be elected, during the Life of the present Prince Abassi, and as long as the present Peace with the Turks lasts. Which Conditions are sent to Prince Ragotski.

Leipsich, Jan. 23. King Augustus continues in this City, and there are frequent Visits between him and the King of Sweden. Last Week, as King Augustus was riding out of this City to Alt-Ranstad, he met just without the Gate King Stanislaus in a Coach, having with him his Queen who was come from Stetin: They saluted with their Hats as they pass'd by each other, and King Augustus immediately clap'd Spurs to his Horse and rid on. The States of this Electorate make pressing Instances to the King of Sweden to take but 1300000 Rixdollars instead of 1900000 that he demands of them for Contributions: But their 2 Deputies who return'd yesterday from the King of Sweden's Quarters, have reported, that they had not been able to prevail with Count Piper to have the least Regard to their Remonstrances. The Nobility of this Electorate, who are by their ancient Tenures oblig'd to furnish at their own Cost 1500 Horse at the Desire of the Elector when Need requires, had us'd to be excus'd this Charge on their paying 50 Rixdollars in lieu of each Horse and Man; but they are very much surpriz'd at the Swedes demanding now 1000 Rixdollars instead of every 50 on that Account. The Servants of King Augustus's Household, which are coming from Lars Poland, are expect'd here within 8 Days; but some Saxon Troops will winter in the Waywodship of Cracow, and they now exact there 5 Rixdollars a Head a Month, instead of 2 Rixdollars as had been agreed. The Swedes continue to raise Men with as great Application as ever.

Neuremberg, Jan. 25. Some Swedish Officers have desir'd leave to raise Men in this City, Ausbourg, Ratisbon, and other Places, but the Magistrates excus'd themselves, alledging that they could not grant that Liberty but to such only as produc'd the Emperour's Commission: Yet the said Officers levy Men underhand, and particularly on the Frontiers of Bavaria. They write from Strasbourg, that the French are making very great Preparations for an early Expedition, and that they still give out they expect the Elector of Bavaria to command on the Rhine.

Hildesheim, Jan. 25. 'Tis advis'd from Saxony, that the Count de Monasterole the Bavarian Minister continues at Leipsich, and that the Swedes demand Contributions till the Month of May.

Liege, Jan. 28. The Elector of Bavaria is at Mons and sends frequent Couriers to the Count de Monasterole, his Envoy with the King of Sweden in Saxony.

Berlin, Jan. 25. 'Tis advis'd from Poland, that the Czar has offer'd the Republick of Poland 20000 Men, to support the Election of a new King which most of the Polish Nobility are inclin'd to make. M. Printz set out from hence Yesterday on his Return to the King of Sweden in Saxony, to attend him as Envoy from our King. Baron Kniphuyzen being nominated to go Ambassador from this Court to the King of Spain, is making Preparation for beginning his Journey very speedily.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 1.

Danzick, Jan. 28. Our Magistrates and Burghers have acknowledg'd Stanislaus for King of Poland: And have nominated Deputies to go to Saxony to compliment him on his Accession to the Throne: And on Sunday next the Anniversary of his Coronation will be observ'd here.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 1.

The Advices from Poland confirm, that the Czar was on the Way to Lemberg, in order to encourage the Poles by his Presence to proceed without Delay to a new Election; and there not being in that Country a sufficient Number of Troops to oppose him, 'tis very likely the Party that are abandon'd by King Augustus will lay hold of the Occasion to chose a Head capable of maintaining them in Conjunction with the Muscovites; at least unless another unlook'd for Peace be clap'd up, and put an End to all these Contentions. In the mean time, 'tis certain King Stanislaus continued in his Quarter at Leising in Saxony the 23d of January, without having fix'd the Day of his Departure, or given any Order about his Return to Poland.

Some Advices from Coningsberg of the 17th of January, say Prince Menzikow was unexpectedly arriv'd there, with Design (as was rumour'd) either to go for Saxony or to the Court of Prussia, with a Commission from the Czar. But this News seems to require Confirmation.

Hague, Feb. 1. The 30th past Mr. Stepney set out from hence for the Court of the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, and is expected back again in a short Time.
